

Quartz Hill Little League 2025 Code of Conduct

To participate in all remaining 2025 League activities, all managers, coaches, and parents must sign the Quartz Hill Little League Code of Conduct, detailed below.

1. Be supportive of all players.
2. Do not yell at or speak negatively to your child or their teammates.
3. Do not coach your child or their teammates during a game (unless you are a manager/coach).
4. Do not ever let any player feel like they lost the game. All teams win, and all teams lose.
5. Never yell at or speak negatively to an opposing manager/coach, parent, or player.
6. Do not engage in cheering that could be considered disrespectful to or might interfere with the opposing team's performance.
7. Never yell at, criticize, or even offer advice to an umpire (even in a polite manner). Comments should be directed to your manager/coach if you are a parent/spectator or a league administrator if you are a manager/coach. If an umpire feels that they are being mistreated, we will remove you from the remainder of the game, and a second offense will result in you being asked not to return.
8. Never blame an umpire for a game's outcome. Umpires' decisions are not always correct, but successful players learn how to overcome those decisions, not use them as excuses.
9. All parents should remain off the field and out of the dugout unless they are serving in an official capacity that the QHLL Board has approved.
10. If you are not satisfied with an aspect of your child's experience, talk to the manager or coach about it at a time when he/she can listen respectfully. Generally, this is not immediately before, after, or DURING a game.
11. Understand that QHLL can only happen through the efforts of our volunteers. Appreciate their efforts and show them the respect you would want to receive.
12. Concerns should be voiced in writing through the appropriate channels, beginning with the player agent during the regular season or the tournament director during TOC or All Stars.
13. Parents and Spectators should never ridicule or demean coaches, players, umpires, or league officials. You are responsible for your guests. Inform them of our league expectations.

Last but not least...REMEMBER: These are children, your children.

This is a game and meant to be fun for the kids above all else.

Managers, Coaches, Scorekeepers, and League personnel are volunteers.

They make mistakes; give them a break.

Umpires are human. They make mistakes; give them a break.

YOU are not on the field playing; you are watching...keep it that way.

We trust everyone will remember this and keep the games a fun, safe, enjoyable atmosphere for the kids.
Anyone not acting accordingly will be asked to leave the premises. Please do not let that happen to you.

PARENT AGREEMENT

As a parent of a player, I agree to abide by the code of conduct listed above. Failure to do so will result in immediate player removal from the team, being listed as "not in good standing" with the League, and potential expulsion from the League.
